Meet Your Facilitator Johanne Edwards DNM, PhD

A natural health doctor, seminar leader, personal empowerment coach, champion of the human spirit, innovative, intuitive, and inspirational.

As a Doctor of Natural (Nature's) Medicine and a Life Transformational Trainer, Dr. Edwards teaches and counsels clients using empowering systems in which an eclectic mix of natural modalities and techniques are used. Essential oils are a wonderful addition to her health protocols.

Going Green:

- ▶ Learn how to make your own nontoxic cleaning products.
- ▶ Learn about the toxic chemicals in your store-bought cleaners and detergents and their harmful side effects.
- ▶ Recipe book for cleaning products made with the old-fashioned products grandma used to use and the benefits of adding essential oils.
- ▶ Make several recipes as a take-home getting you off to a great start Going Green.
